EE. Replace:

The following Consumer advisory warning in the 'Fees and other costs' section on page 6 of the PDS:

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. Ask us or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE?

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a managed investment fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

With:

Example - the Prudent Investment Option

Balance of $50,000 with total contributions of $5,000 during year ¹

- 1 This example assumes the $5,000 contribution occurs at the end of the year, therefore Management Costs are calculated using the $50,000 balance only.
- 2 The Management Costs include the Management Fee (2.30% p.a. of NAV), indirect costs (0.02% p.a. of NAV) and recoverable expenses (0% p.a. of NAV). For more information on 'management costs', please see the section on 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' below.
- 3 Additional fees may apply. Please note that this example does not capture all the fees and costs that may apply to you, such as transactional or operational costs. Please see 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' below for further information.

HH. Replace:

The 'Ongoing Management Fee' and 'What does the Management Fee cover?' sections directly under the heading 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' on page 7 of the PDS, as follows:

Management Costs

The Management Costs for the Investment Options incorporate all relevant ongoing fees and other costs involved in managing the product and deriving investment returns. The Management Costs include the Management Fee, indirect costs and recoverable expenses, but do not include transactional and operational costs.

The following table lists the Management Costs for the Investment Options for the financial year ending 30 June 2017:

Investment Options	Management Fee	Indirect Costs	Recoverable Expenses	Total Management Cost
Cautious	2.30%	0.02%	0.00%	2.32%
Prudent	2.30%	0.02%	0.00%	2.32%
Assertive	2.30%	0.01%	0.00%	2.31%
Aggressive	2.30%	0.00%	0.00%	2.30%

Management Fee

The above table lists the Management Fee for each Investment Option.

Note: We will receive a GST inclusive Management Fee in respect of each Investment Option that is higher than the Management Fee disclosed in this PDS. However, the Management Fee charge to each Investment Option is lower than the amount we will receive due to the partial recoverability of the GST under the GST Law.

What does the Management Fee cover?

The Management Fee that we charge you goes to pay for:

- All GST inclusive expenses relating to Investment Options, other than other associated transaction costs such as stamp duty and brokerage;
- Costs relating to ongoing selection and monitoring of investment managers;
- Management fees charged by the underlying investment managers;
- Operating expenses payment to distributors;
- The cost of the administration of the ClearView Managed Investments Schemes; and
- Reporting to investors on performance through statements, the ClearView Managed Investments Financial Reports and our publications.

Indirect costs

Indirect costs are any amounts paid from the product's assets that the Responsible Entity knows or estimates will reduce the product's returns, other than the Management Fee, recoverable expenses and transactional and operational costs set out elsewhere in this section.

As set out in the previous table, the indirect costs of the product for the financial year ending 30 June 2017 are estimated to be between 0.00% to 0.02% per annum of net asset value of the product.

Recoverable expenses

We are also entitled to be reimbursed for expenses we incur in the proper performance of our duties and in connection with the day-to-day operation of the product. Until further notice, we pay these recoverable expenses (excluding any GST payable on our fees) out of our Management Fee with the exception of abnormal costs.

However, if we decide to deduct expenses in addition to the Management Fee in the future, we will give you 30 days' advance written notice. The constitution does not place any limit on the amount of the ongoing operating expenses that can be paid from the product.

Abnormal costs (such as the costs associated with unit holder meetings, changes to the constitution and defending legal proceedings) are paid out of the assets of the product. These costs are normally incurred infrequently. At the date of this PDS we do not expect to incur any abnormal costs in the current financial year and have estimated the recoverable expenses of the product for the current financial year to be nil.

Buy-sell spread

Whilst we do not currently charge a buy-sell spread for the product, under the constitution we have the ability to introduce one in the future, and would give you 30 days' advance written notice if this were introduced.

II. Replace:

The following wording in the 'Transaction costs' section, under the 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' section on page 8 of the PDS as follows:

Transaction costs

These are costs associated with the buying or selling of underlying investments held within the Investment Options. They include expenses such as brokerage paid on share transactions and are accounted for each time an Investment Option is valued and so are reflected in the performance of the Investment Option. Transaction costs differ across Investment Options due to different transaction costs applying to each asset class. For example, cash and fixed interest usually incur little or no transaction costs whereas shares and listed property transactions have an indicative cost of around 0.30% of the transaction. These costs may vary over time.

Transaction costs are built into the unit price of an Investment Option and, as such, are indirectly borne by all investors. Please note that transaction costs are not a payment to us.

For simplicity we use a single unit price for all transactions (for each effective date) rather than applying a buy-sell spread to fund transaction cost provisions. We may introduce a buy-sell spread sometime in the future.

With:

Transactional and operational costs

The product may incur transactional and operational costs. Transactional and operational costs include costs incurred by the product when investors invest in or withdraw from the product and when transacting to meet investment objectives. These may include brokerage, settlement costs, clearing costs, stamp duty and the transactional and operational costs of the underlying fund.

All government taxes such as stamp duty and GST will be deducted from the product as appropriate. Relevant tax information is provided in Section 3 of the Additional Information document, 'Taxation on Investment Options'.

Reduced Input Tax Credits (RITC) will also be claimed by the product where appropriate to reduce the cost of GST to the product and investors.

These costs are an additional cost to you but are generally incurred indirectly via the unit price and not charged separately to you. Transactional and operational costs are deducted from the product from time to time and as they are incurred and are reflected in the unit price.

We estimate that the transactional and operational costs for the Investment Options for the financial year ending 30 June 2017 will be between 0.18% and 0.22% of the net asset value of the Investment Option, as set out in the below table. However, given the above, this amount will constantly vary.

Investment Options	Transactional and operational costs
Cautious	0.18% p.a.
Prudent	0.22% p.a.
Assertive	0.21% p.a.
Aggressive	0.22% p.a.

Each year we will recalculate the approximate transactional and operational costs of the product (based on the prior year). Should the recalculation give a value that is materially higher to the year prior, we will issue a supplementary PDS or a new PDS.

JJ. Replace:

The following wording in the 'Increases, alterations or the introduction of new fees and charges' section, under the 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' section on page 8 of the PDS:

The Constitution for each Investment Option allows an increase in the Management Fees and also the introduction of new fees or charges without your consent. We will give you at least 30 days advance notice of any increase in fees and charges or the introduction of any new fees or charges.

With:

The table below outlines the maximum fees each Investment Option is entitled to charge (under the Constitution). These amounts exclude GST.

Type of Fee	Maximum (excluding GST)

The Government has recently passed legislation to create a new external dispute resolution body for the financial services industry, known as the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA will function as the 'one stop shop' for financial disputes.

It will commence from 1 July 2018, and the Government has indicated that it will become operational and begin receiving disputes by 1 November 2018. We anticipate that complaints will be able to be lodged with AFCA once it is operational. ClearView will remain a member of FOS for 12 months following AFCA's commencement on 1 July 2018 to ensure the orderly resolution of outstanding FOS disputes.

13. Update to Identification Requirements section, including FATCA and the Common Reporting Standards requirements

MM. Remove:

On page 12 of the PDS, the 'Anti-Money Laundering/Counter Terrorism Financing Laws' section.

NN. Replace:

On page 14 of the Additional Information document, replace the 'Identification Requirements' section with the following 'Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing' and 'Reporting of financial account information on foreign tax residents' sections:

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing

We are bound by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 ('AML/CTF laws'). The AML/CTF laws require us to identify you and verify your identity when you purchase units in any of the Investment Options. Generally, if you have a financial adviser they will undertake these steps but to enable them to do so you will need to provide certain documents (such as your passport or current driver's licence) for sighting and verification.

If you are undertaking these transactions without a financial adviser you will need to submit 'certified copies' of these documents with your transaction request. Please download the 'Identification Form: Individuals and Sole Traders' from www.clearview.com.au (within the Tools section) for a full list of documents that will satisfy these requirements. For non-individuals (e.g. company, trust, partnership, association) you can complete the relevant ClearView Identification Form also available within the Tools section of www.clearview.com.au. If you do not provide identifying documents we will not be able to process your transaction.

We may also require existing investors to complete the relevant ClearView Identification Forms before we can;

- process your withdrawals;
- amend your personal details;
- amend details on, or in relation to, your investments; and/or
- in relation to any other transaction that we deem necessary.

By investing in an Investment Option, you agree that:

- we are required to carry out procedures that verify your identity before providing services to you, and from time to time thereafter;
- you are not investing under an assumed name;
- any money you invest is not derived from or related to any criminal activities;
- any proceeds will not be used in relation to any criminal activities;
- you will not initiate, engage in or effect a transaction that may be in breach of AML/CTF laws or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country);
- if we ask, you will provide us with any additional information we may reasonably require for the purposes of AML/CTF laws or sanctions. This could include information about you, your estate, about anyone acting on your behalf, or a holder of a beneficial interest in the investment, or the source of funds used in connection with the investment;
- we may obtain information about you, your estate, anyone acting on your behalf, a holder of a beneficial interest in the investment or the source of funds used in connection with the investment from third parties if we believe this is necessary to comply with AML/CTF laws or sanctions;
- in order to comply with AML/CTF laws and sanctions, we may be required to take action, including delaying or refusing the processing of any application or any transaction related to your account if we believe or suspect that the application or transaction may breach any obligation of, or cause us to commit or participate in an offence under any AML/CTF laws or sanctions. We will not incur any liability in doing so; and

- where legally obliged to do so, we may disclose the information gathered to regulatory and/or law enforcement agencies or other entities. We may share this information with other members of the ClearView Group.

If you breach your obligations under your investment with us, we can close your investment without notice if we suspect that there is a breach of any of the conditions set out above, such as unsatisfactory conduct by you or if you fail to provide required information and documentation as requested within a stipulated time period, or if we consider that we need to close your investment for any other reason in order to manage appropriately any risks to which we are exposed (including the risk of damage to our reputation).

If you have any questions with our requirements please call us on 132 977.

Reporting of financial account information on foreign tax residents

The United States of America (U.S.) enacted the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) in 2010 to identify U.S. residents that invest in assets through non-U.S. entities. On 28 April 2014, the Australian government signed an intergovernmental agreement (IGA) with the U.S., which requires all Australian financial institutions to comply with FATCA, as modified by the IGA. Broadly, ClearView Managed Investments is required to collect and review information to determine whether it has an obligation to report information about certain investors in ClearView Managed Investments to the ATO (which will pass that information onto the relevant regulatory body). Accordingly, ClearView Managed Investments may request certain information from you to enable ClearView Managed Investments to comply with its FATCA obligations.

ClearView Managed Investments will also provide information about its FATCA status where required so that FATCA withholding is not applied to payments received on its investments (e.g. dividends paid on U.S. listed securities). If ClearView Managed Investments suffers any amount of FATCA withholding and is unable to obtain a refund for such withholding, neither the Responsible Entity nor ClearView Managed Investments will be required to compensate you for any such withholding and the effects of these amounts will be reflected in the returns of the Investment Options in ClearView Managed Investments. A credit for FATCA withholding may be available in your jurisdiction of residence. Investors should seek their own advice in this regard.

In addition to FATCA, from 1 July 2017, the Common Reporting Standards (CRS) have implemented statutory reporting requirements for jurisdictions within the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) which includes Australia. If you are an investor, we may pass your information on to the ATO for the purpose of meeting our obligations under these statutory requirements. If you are a foreign tax resident investing in ClearView Managed Investments we will request that you provide certain information about yourself, including your Taxpayer Identification Number.

We may also disclose your personal information to any complaints body to which a complaint relating to this product or service is referred, or to any person who acts on your behalf in relation to your investment, such as your financial adviser, solicitor or accountant. As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia. Where you have provided information about another individual, you must make them aware of that fact and the contents of this Privacy Statement. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

15. Update to Understanding investment risks section

QQ. Replace:

On page 9 of the PDS, replace the 'Understanding investment risks' section with the following 'Risks of managed investments' section:

Risks of managed investments

All investments carry risk. The likely investment return and the risk of losing money is different for each managed investment as different strategies carry different levels of risk depending on the underlying mix of assets that make up each Investment Option. Those assets with potentially the highest long term return (such as shares) may also have the highest level of short-term risk. Please speak with your financial adviser to determine your own risk/reward profile.

The significant risks for the Investment Options are:

- Concentrated portfolio risk: Where the Investment Option has a concentrated portfolio of investments, there is the risk of insufficient diversification. Where this occurs the value of the Investment Option will generally be more volatile than the value of a more diversified fund because a concentrated fund's value is affected to a greater extent by the performance of those particular assets.
- Interest rate risk: Changes in interest rates can influence the value and returns of investments.
- Investment risk: Investments in a company may decline in value because of changes in the financial condition of the company. The underlying investment manager's careful analysis of each company it invests in, as well as maintaining a diversified portfolio of companies, aims to minimise this risk.
- Liquidity risk: The risk that the underlying investments held by the Investment Option may be difficult to realise within a reasonable time frame or that the Investment Option itself becomes illiquid.
- Market risk: The risk that the market price of an asset will fluctuate as a result of factors such as economic conditions, government regulations, market sentiment, local and international political events and environmental and technological impacts. Market risk may have different impacts on each type of asset, investment style and investment manager.
- Operational risk: Operational risk includes the risk of loss as a result of inadequate/failed processes, people, systems, or external events. Negative impacts may arise internally through system failure, human errors, technology or infrastructure changes, or through external events such as third party supplier failures or crisis scenarios.
- Regulatory risk: There is a risk that taxation or other applicable laws and regulations in Australia may change and these changes may affect the operation of the Investment Option and/or the underlying fund.
- Security specific risk: The risk associated with an individual asset. The price of shares in a company may be affected by unexpected changes in that company's operations such as changes in management or the loss of a significant customer.

- Underlying fund risk: To gain investment exposure, the Investment Option may invest in an underlying fund, which may also invest in other funds. This means that an investment in the Investment Option is exposed not only to the risks of the Investment Option but also to the risks of the underlying fund(s). The Investment Option may also be affected by the liquidity of the underlying fund(s) and circumstances, for example, where the underlying fund(s) suspend redemptions.

Risk can be managed but it cannot be completely eliminated. It is important to understand that:

- the value of your investment will go up and down;
- investment returns will vary and future returns may be different from past returns;
- returns are not guaranteed and there is always the chance that you may lose money on any investment you make; and
- laws affecting your investment in a managed investment may change over time.

The appropriate level of risk for you will depend on your age, investment time frame, investment objectives, where other parts of your wealth are invested and how comfortable you are with the possibility of losing some of your money in some years.

Distributions

We determine the distribution amounts for each of the Investment Options. Distribution amounts can consist of income and/or capital.

Income from an Investment Option can be made up of:

- dividends;
- interest;
- other distributions paid on the assets of that Investment Option;
- realised capital gains from the sale of the assets of that Investment Option; and/or
- other income.

Your distribution amount will normally vary depending on factors like market conditions, asset class, investment performance and other factors. As a result of these factors, you may or may not receive any distributions.

You can choose to have your distributions paid to your nominated financial institution account or have them reinvested.

The unit price of an Investment Option will be reduced on the day following the distribution, reflecting the amount of the distribution and any market movement of the underlying investments.

For more information on distributions go to 'Section 1: How and when are distributions paid?' in the Additional Information.

Regular income through our Fixed Payment Plan

You can also choose to receive a specified amount, paid monthly or at distribution time through our Fixed Payment Plan.

For more information on 'Fixed Payment Plan' go to 'Section 2: Regular income through our Fixed Payment Plan' in the Additional Information.

Fees and other costs

Consumer advisory warning

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your fund balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You may be able to negotiate to pay lower contribution fees and management costs where applicable. Ask us or your Financial Planner.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.fido.asic.gov.au) has a managed investment fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

This document shows fees and other costs that you will be charged. These fees may be deducted from your account balance or from the returns on your investment or from the Investment Option as a whole.

You should read all of the information about fees and costs, because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

Fees and other costs for particular Investment Options are on page 7.

Type of fee or cost	Amount	How and when paid
Fees when your money moves in or out of the Investment Option
Establishment fee: The fee to open your investment.	Nil	Not applicable
Contribution fee: The fee on each amount contributed to your investment.	Nil	Not applicable
Withdrawal fee: The fee on each amount you take out of your investment.	Nil	Not applicable

The fees and costs for managing your investment.	The amount you pay for specific Investment Options is shown on page 7 ¹ .	A single Management Fee ² is applied for each Investment Option, which is based on the value of the assets held in each Investment Option. The Management Fee is reflected in the daily unit price and the fee is not a specific deduction from your investment.
Service Costs
Investment switching fee: The fee for changing Investment Options.	Nil	Not applicable

¹ See 'Family Fee Discount' and 'Differential fees' under the heading 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' on page 7 for situations in which you may pay less than the stated Management Fee.

Transaction costs

These are costs associated with the buying or selling of underlying investments held within the Investment Options. They include expenses such as brokerage paid on share transactions and are accounted for each time an Investment Option is valued and so are reflected in the performance of the Investment Option. Transaction costs differ across Investment Options due to different transaction costs applying to each asset class. For example, cash and fixed interest usually incur little or no transaction costs whereas shares and listed property transactions have an indicative cost of around 0.3% of the transaction. These costs may vary over time. Transaction costs are built into the unit price of an Investment Option and, as such, are indirectly borne by all investors. Please note that transaction costs are not a payment to us.

For simplicity we use a single unit price for all transactions (for each effective date) rather than applying a buy/sell spread to fund transaction cost provisions. We may introduce a buy/sell spread sometime in the future.

Increases, alterations or the introduction of new fees and charges

The Constitution for each Investment Option allows an increase in the Management Fees and also the introduction of new fees or charges without your consent. We will give you at least 30 days advance notice of any increase in fees and charges or the introduction of any new fees or charges.

Differential fees

For certain investors that the Corporations Act 2001 defines as 'wholesale clients' or 'sophisticated' or 'professional investors', we may negotiate differential fees in accordance with the relevant ASIC class order. Where the differential fee arrangements involve us paying management fee rebates, the rebates will be paid from our own monies and will not affect other investors. The same differential fee arrangement will apply to investors with the same balance. The fee rebate may be treated as assessable income for tax purposes. We suggest you consider seeking professional taxation advice in relation to any such rebate.

Understanding investment risks

Before you consider an investment strategy, it is important that you understand the risks that affect your investment.

All investing involves a degree of risk. Investing involves finding the right balance between potential risk and return. Before making an investment decision, it is important that you understand the following considerations:

1. Your investment goals

These will indicate how much you may need to invest and the level of returns you are likely to require.

2. Your investment timeframe

This relates to how long you have to achieve your investment goals and will be a key factor in choosing the right Investment Option(s) to suit your investment strategy.

3. Your risk tolerance

This relates to how you feel about the value of your investment fluctuating during your investment timeframe.

Investment risk

Investment risk is most commonly measured by the volatility of returns. Generally speaking, there is a positive relationship between returns and risk.

While past performance is not an indicator of future performance investment history has shown:

- investments with potentially higher long term returns tend to have more variable returns and have a greater chance of negative returns in the short term.
- investments that provide more stable returns, with less chance of negative returns, have tended to produce lower returns over the long term and would expect less fluctuation in returns and less chance of capital loss.

You should also consider the risk that the performance of your investment may not meet your investment objectives. In other words, the chance that you might not be able to meet your investment goals over your investment timeframe with your choice of investments.

The value of your investments in an Investment Option may be affected by a number of factors and risks, such as:

- interest and currency exchange rates;
- changes in the general economic and political climate; and
- market sentiment.

Managing investment risk through diversification

For a given investment timeframe and risk tolerance, diversification is generally the most effective approach to optimising the risk and return profile of an investment. It involves spreading the money within and across different asset classes to minimise the impact from the poor performance of any one investment or asset class and to provide more consistent investment returns.

Since the ClearView Managed Investments Investment Options are diversified across asset classes and investment managers, they allow you to get the benefits of diversification in three ways:

1. Diversification within an asset classes

Gives you access to numerous securities within an asset class.

2. Diversification across asset classes

A way of reducing the risks of sharp fluctuations in value within individual asset classes because it is unlikely that all asset classes will perform well at the same time.

3. Diversification across investment managers

Rigorous analysis is undertaken to determine in which asset classes it makes sense to have exposure to more than one investment manager. As a result, some of our asset classes are managed by a variety of investment managers.

Other risks include:

- the Investment Option could terminate;
- investing in an Investment Option may give different results than investing individually because of income and capital gains accrued in the Investment Option and the consequences of investment and withdrawal by other investors;
- potential of future changes in legislation impacting your investment (e.g. taxation laws may change); and
- risk related to the financial viability of the Responsible Entity for the Investment Options.

ClearView Managed Investment - Investment Options

To assist in selecting appropriate investment options, we have created a blend of diversified Investment Options that primarily invest in a number of common underlying funds, which enables the pooling of money within an asset class. You should speak to your Financial Planner to determine which Investment Option(s) best suits your needs.

Aim: To achieve a low level of growth over the short to medium term.

Designed for: Investors who are averse to risk but seeking some capital growth to offset inflation.

Investment Option 2 – Cautious

Investment Option 4 – Assertive

Aim: To achieve a medium to high level of growth over the long term.

Designed for: Investors prepared to accept frequent fluctuations in order to achieve potential long term growth.

Investment Option 5 – Aggressive

Risk and return

The graph below shows the potential risk and return for each of the Investment Options.

The Investment Options placed higher on the axis are more likely to experience returns that may vary significantly and may be negative over the short term. However, they are more likely to produce higher returns over the long-term.

For more information on 'The ClearView Investments – Investment Options' go to 'Section 4: What are my Investment Options?' in the Additional Information.

What else do I need to know?

Unit prices and how they are calculated

Each Investment Option is divided into units – a unit represents a proportion of an Investment Option.

The price of a unit is calculated by dividing the net market value of the assets of an Investment Option by the number of units issued in the Investment Option.

For more information on 'Unit prices and how they are calculated' go to 'Section 7: How are unit prices calculated?' in the Additional Information.

Each Investment Option is a separate managed investment scheme, operated by us and governed by its own Constitution as required by the Corporations Act 2001. The Constitution is binding on investors in the particular Investment Option. It generally gives us significant flexibility in the way the Investment Option can be operated.

Each Constitution covers, amongst other things:

- our liability as Responsible Entity;
- investor meetings - details of how they are run and how you can vote;
- when an Investment Option can be terminated;
- how the Constitution can be amended;
- how we can retire or be removed;
- applications for and issue of units;
- how we calculate the unit price;
- how you can redeem units issued to you;
- your rights to share any of the Investment Option's income and capital and how we calculate distributions; and
- restrictions on and obligations of persons who are, or seek to become directly or indirectly entitled to hold 10% or more of the units in an Investment Option.
- Where there are joint investors, only the one listed first in the register may exercise votes in respect of the unit at an investors meeting.

A copy of the Constitution for each Investment Option is available free of charge on request by contacting us on 132 976.

Liability of Responsible Entity

We are not liable to investors of an Investment Option to any greater extent than the investments, cash and other property vested in or actually received by us in accordance with the Constitution of that Investment Option, except in the case of our own fraud, negligence, breach of duty or trust, or otherwise provided by law.

Liability of investors

Generally, the Constitutions provide that, in the absence of a separate agreement, no investor will be personally liable to us or to any creditor of an Investment Option.

Compliance plan

There is a master compliance plan for the Investment Options. Amongst other things, this master compliance plan sets out the key criteria that we take to ensure that the Investment Options comply with the Corporations Act 2001 and the relevant Constitution.

The master compliance plan will be audited at least once a year by an external auditor who will report on their findings to us.

A Board delegated committee has been established to monitor our compliance.

Liabilities of the Investment Options
